Festive season is the most ideal time to indulge in the more merrier attitude. Festival ushers in a colourful mood to the family and we all love to add some more colour to our life and our sweet home. Festivals are all about adding richness and colour to your interiors to give it a joyous verve. So, if you are not planning a total makeover, you could start with a little bit of painting of the walls or by using wallpapers. Jenis Makwana, head of Design & Innovation, Bonito Designs, says, "Festive season is just around the corner. As we prepare for religious ceremonies, it is also the perfect time to adorn our homes with decor that exudes the festive spirit. Here, we explore the top six decor trends that are set to take centre stage with warmth and charm.

Natural Elements and Sustainability: In an era marked by growing environmental awareness, eco-conscious decor is gaining prominence. This festive season, we predict a surge in the demand for natural elements such as wood, bamboo, glass, to be integrated into festive decorations.

Warm Earthy Tones: This festive season, we expect to see a delightful palette of warm earthy tones. From terracotta and olive green to rust, deep navy, marigold, sage, burnt sienna brown, turmeric, and deep burgundy, these colours are poised to dominate the festive decor landscape. Artisanal and Handcrafted Pieces: Adding a personal touch to your living spaces is a growing trend, and handcrafted decor is at the forefront. Seek out intricately designed pottery, handmade textiles, and unique artisanal items that showcase cultural diversity and craftsmanship.

Sanjeev Agarwal, chief design officer, Ashwin Sheth Group, says, "The upcoming festive season promises to weave compelling decor themes into the tapestry of interior design, lending its own particular thread of charm to our living spaces. As we approach the festive season, these are trending décor themes to infuse our homes with warmth, elegance, and a touch of the extraordinary. There are always different ways to spruce your dream home, from adding different types of colours such as displaying ethnic cushions and pillows to adding vintage-inspired designs is making a spectacular comeback, transporting the homeowners to a bygone period. This style includes design infusion from vintage furniture to antique decorations, allowing the homeowners to merge the past with the present, imbuing the homes with a feeling of history and culture." During the festive season, one can also add sparkling earthen lamps, candles, and petite lights that are an integral part of home décor during the festive season."
